

Responsibilities:

Guests are responsible for:

choosing a tour that corresponds to their abilities, fitness level and state of health; arriving on time for the start of the tour; arriving at the point of departure with clothing and gear suitable to the time of year; respecting the laws and customs of Greece; following environmental guidelines and regulations while on the tour, in accordance with the tour leader's instructions; respecting the rights and privacy of other tour participants.

An individual may be asked to leave a tour if the leader feels that the person's continuing participation may prove detrimental to the individual and/or his/her wellbeing, as well as the safety, enjoyment and well-being of other guests, including the tour leader.

It is the Guest's responsibility to make themselves aware of the content and level of difficulty of the tour prior to the tour start. Guests traveling with children are responsible for choosing a tour that corresponds to their child's abilities and interests. During the tour the adult guest is responsible for the children he/she is traveling with at all times.

Guests are not responsible for any theft of bikes or parts of bikes by a third party. This is the sole responsibility of Chania Bike Tours.

Guests are not responsible for any breakages or mechanical damage to the bikes, unless these result from the client's inexperience or negligence.

Guests are responsible for any damage to their bikes or those of other participants caused by their inexperience or negligence. These damages will be charged to the guest.

Chania Bike Tours is not liable for bodily injury or damage to property as a result of (but not limited to): physical exertion for which a guest is unprepared; forces of nature; consumption of alcoholic beverages; civil unrest; terrorism; breakdown of equipment; the adequacy of medical attention once provided.

Chania Bike Tours is not liable for any damage to third party property caused by the guest's negligence or cycling inexperience. For example: a fall off the bike against a car or the property of a third party is NOT the responsibility of Chania Bike Tours, if this was caused by guest's inability to handle the bike or negligence when handling the bike.

Chania Bike Tours is not responsible for the loss or theft of a guest's personal belongings during the tour, both in and outside of the Chania Bike Tours premises. By participating in a tour, Guests grant Chania Bike Tours their express permission to take photographs or make film recordings of the tours for promotional and commercial purposes, as well as approving, without financial remuneration, such use by third parties with whom Chania Bike Tours may engage in joint marketing.

"Chania Bike Tours" will only depart with a minimum number of participants. If, 24 hours prior to the tour start the guest is the only participant on a tour, Chania Bike Tours will contact the guest to offer an alternative tour to participate in. If the alternatives do not match the guest's availability or interests the reservation may be canceled, and a full reimbursement will be provided.

In the event of rain customers may reschedule or cancel their booking and receive a full refund.
